

(Documentary & Personal Reaction) History of Rock and Roll, E1 (TimeLife)

Due Thursday by 11:59pm

Points 100

Submitting a text entry box or a file upload

File Types doc, docx, and txt

Available Sep 7 at 6am - Sep 10 at 11:59pm

ASSIGNMENT: History of Rock and Roll Documentary, Episodes 1: Reaction

- Watch the History of Rock and Roll documentary (Episodes 1).
- In the text area below (or in a Word/Text document), comment on/react to the information you learned.
- 1-paragraph/200-300 words (IN YOUR OWN WORDS; personal reactionary comments, not a summary)
- The due date for this assignment is listed below. Please have your reactions submitted by/before then!
- Happy viewing! This episode is part of a 10-episode collection by TimeLife. I regularly show all 10 episodes to my in-person class and students usually have a very positive reaction to them. Unfortunately, YouTube and other online video entities are not able to keep these videos for very long due to copyright and it is extremely difficult to find these streaming. The rest of the series can be purchased (if you like them!) from Amazon
- \(Links to an external site.\)
- (new & used) or from TimeLife's website. They are also housed in the Library at Citrus College and can be viewed on-campus. You could also check your local library too.

History of Rock and Roll, Episode 1: "Rock and Roll Explodes

\(Links to an external site.\)" and <https://vimeo.com/116119850>

A must in order to get full credit !!

1.) Assignment Criteria

Personal reflection/reaction to the assigned video documentary; direct references to the video documentary.

Plagiarism will earn a "0" for this assignment

2.) Full credit

Personal response given; response(s) reflects understanding of the video documentary.