White Like Me

- How does this film relate to the House We Live In film? Differences? Similarities?
- Why does Wise suggest that issues like poverty, housing, education, and healthcare are race related issues? What other political issues are race-related but rarely debated in that context?
- How does racism affect both minority and dominant groups? Explain.
- Why do you think mainstream media report on individual, interpersonal cases of racism far more than systematic and institutionalized forms of racial injustice?
- Why does Wise say that it is important to know the history of the anti-racist movement?
- What are some other privileged identities in our society other than whiteness?

White Privilege

- ...is the collection of benefits based on belonging to a group perceived to be white, when the same or similar benefits are denied to members of other groups. It is the benefit of access to resources and social rewards and the power to shape the norms and values of society that white people receive, unconsciously or consciously, by virtue of their skin color
