

Worksheet 4B Data Collection Logistics

Data Collection Method/Source		From whom will these data be collected	By whom will these data be collected	Security or confidentiality steps
1	1. Surveys	Groups and organizations within the community	By trained surveyors or community mobilizers	Will be kept private and aggregated in simple views to protect privacy.
2	Health records	Starting from local hospitals and clinics	By medical personnel or trained data analysts	only identified data will be used to protect patient confidentiality
3	Demographic information	Collected through various agencies and census data	Obtained through government or trained data analyst employees	Data is kept confidential and is shared only in aggregate form to protect privacy
4	Focus groups	From community members and stakeholders	By trained facilitators or community organizers	Data confidentiality will be ensured, and only aggregate forms will be used to share without revealing sensitive information
5	Community outreach.	Through community members and organizations, e.g. volunteers	By trained community outreach workers or volunteers	Data will be kept confidential and only shared in aggregate to protect privacy.
6	Interviews	From the community leaders and the experts	By trained interviewers or community organizers	Data will be kept confidential and only shared in aggregate as anonymity should be a must.
7	Observations	In community events and settings	By hiring trained observers or volunteers	The data will be confidential and shared in aggregate only to protect privacy.

8	Health assessments	These can be given to anyone participating in health programs or initiatives	Health professionals or researchers can conduct these	Safe collection and sharing of data in the aggregate to respect privacy.
9	Social media analysis	Through publicly accessible posts and data	Carried out by trained data analysts or software	The privacy settings for privacy purposes will be respected
10	Community mapping	The data which is collected will be in anonymous form	By trained community mappers or volunteers.	The data will be kept confidential and shared only in aggregate to protect privacy.