

Worksheet 2B Sequencing Activities and Outcomes

Activities		Outcomes
Early	Later	Early	Later
Develop a city-wide assessment to determine health priorities.	Identify quantitative and qualitative data on current health status or needs.	Improved community health.	Improvement in health results through increased adoption of healthy behaviors.
Create interventions and measures to address the identified health needs.	Hold focus groups and surveys to collect the community response on health needs.	Improved knowledge and understanding of health priorities by community members.	Strong, continued collaboration between stakeholders.
Assess the data and pinpoint intervention points according to needs of a community.	Work with the stakeholders to develop evidence-based interventions and strategies.	Greater cooperation and coordination among stakeholders as well as community organizations.	More accessible resources and support for healthy living.
Carry out interventions and strategies to enhance community health.	Support and resource community organizations and agencies with the implementation of interventions.	Improvement of partnerships and collaborations in order to implement interventions and strategies.	Better coordination and sharing of resources as well as support for a healthy lifestyle.
Carry out campaigns and programs in order to popularize healthy practices, as well as tackle the identified health issues.	To analyze data and modify interventions	The increased supply of resources and support for healthy living.	Better overall health statistics and results
Assess interventions and strategies.			Informed decision making and prioritizing interventions and strategies.

Find out how community health metrics have reacted to interventions.	according to their effectiveness.	Sustained improvements in community health. Lower rates of chronic diseases and other health problems. Better understanding of community needs and priorities.	Increased awareness of community requirements and goals among stakeholders
---	--	---	---