Stakeholders	What activities and/or outcomes of this program matter most to them?
1 Chicago Department of Public Health	The outcome of healthier Chicagoans and longer life expectancy will benefit the CDPH because it will accomplish the goal it set out to achieve. Having an effective evidence-based program that other cities can use.
2 Cook County	Cook County will help with the communication of any new policy and make sure the policy meets the county standards.
3 Policy Advocates	When an improvement plan has been created, the advocates will help with making the plan into a policy by advocating to the local and federal governments.
5 Health Commissioner	Oversee county activities and work to ensure that citizen concerns are met, federal and state requirements are fulfilled, and county operations run smoothly.
6 Program Managers	Making sure day-to-day activities are going as planned. Making sure the policies are being implemented and tracked correctly.
7 Education Agencies and schools	Creating programs that can educate and inform people of any new policies or new procedures of doing things. Teaching people at an early age how to implement healthy lifestyle choices to increase health and life expectancy.
9 Mayor's Office	The Mayor's office can serve in many areas but one main area would be communication. They will be considered our creditable spokesperson in cases where we need to do live conferences or communication.
10 Local Businesses	They can help with marketing the new policy, programs or activities. They can use their spaces to host and conduct educational sessions.

11 Faith-Based Groups	They will encourage people in the community to listen to the new policy changes and implement the necessary changes in day-to-day life.
12 Researchers	Researchers can use the data from the outcome to measure the “effectiveness” of the program. The cost
11 Community Partners	They will encourage people in the community to listen to the new policy changes and implement the necessary changes in day-to-day life.
