Essay 3 Assignment

Essay 3 is an 8 – 12 page (typed and double-spaced) argumentative essay that combines the material, revised where necessary, from Essay 1 and Essay 2. It is due by 11:59 pm on Sunday, 6/2/19.

If your Essay 1 and Essay 2 were done successfully, then there is little to do for Essay 3 except to combine the material into one larger essay, and to revise where necessary in order to fit the two essays into one and to fix any issues in need of correction.

Essay 1 identified a specific issue and developed a clear position on that issue. Essay 2 identified opposing arguments to the position argued for in Essay 1 and demonstrated why those opposing arguments are incorrect. So, for Essay 3, combine all of these tasks together to create a single, coherent essay.

You may make any revisions to the content from Essay 1 and Essay 2 that will (hopefully) strengthen the essay and result in an improved grade.
