

Write an essay whose purpose is to help them to find important scientific information on Common Psychological Problems in Adolescents and Emerging Adulthood. The topic can involve the following : drug use, juvenile delinquency, depression and suicide, eating disorders, and some others of your choice.

Requirements for this essay are:

- a) Your writing should consist of 800- 1000 words;
- b) Use Time New Roman font; 12; 1.5 space between lines;
- c) At least 3 references must be used for writing this essay and shown as References: a book and 2 Internet articles; the textbooks are not acceptable as references.
- d) APA style is preferred for formatting references.