

Title: Principles Theory of Ethices

Name: Lisa Kepney

School Universtiy Of Phoenix

CUR/525: Ethical Issues In Education

Professor: David Levosky

a 6- to 8-slide presentation of the critical attributes of the theory or set of principles for the ethical theory assigned by your instructor in Week 1.

Include, at minimum, the following attributes:

- Author and year(s) of development or publication
- Description of the theory, including any alternate titles
- Essential vocabulary in the theory
- A plus-minus set of observations about the theory
- A description of a real scenario of this theory in action

Include an infographic in your presentation focusing on the potential applications of your assigned theory.

Prepare to share your findings with the class to compare and contrast these theories.

Cite all outside sources according to APA formatting.

a 6- to 8-slide presentation of the critical attributes of the theory or set of principles for the ethical theory assigned by your instructor in Week 1.

Include, at minimum, the following attributes:

- Author and year(s) of development or publication
- Description of the theory, including any alternate titles
- Essential vocabulary in the theory
- A plus-minus set of observations about the theory
- A description of a real scenario of this theory in action

Include an infographic in your presentation focusing on the potential applications of your assigned theory.

Prepare to share your findings with the class to compare and contrast these theories.

Cite all outside sources according to APA formatting.