

Administrative Process Essay

1. Write a 3-4 page double spaced paper on the California wild fires that are currently going on as it relates to the administrative process (issuing of state of emergency). 1) which administrative entity is involved, such as city council, federal agency such as EPA, governor's office, etc.; 2) the subject of the issue or event; 3) what caused this issue or event occur and when did it occur; 4) how could implementation of proper administrative process have avoided the issue or event, or alternatively how did the proper use of administrative process work to solve the issue; and 5) Was the Code of Ethics of American Society for Public Administration followed, if not describe the breach of ethics and what should have been done; and alternatively if the Code was followed, described what manner it was followed and how that helped to resolve the issue or event.