

MGT524-Article Annotation Rubric
Student Name			Student ID
	Weight	Excellent 3	Fair 2	Poor 1
Article Selection		Article is from a credible source and is relevant to the subject	The article provides limited insight, and may not be recent	The source may not be a credible publication
Article Comprehension		Student clearly understood the purpose of the research and its main findings from the article	The student has mainly used the words directly from the article to write the annotation	The student failed to understand and communicate the main idea of the article
Annotation Composition		The annotation is clear, and concise. The work is complete and matches the format guidelines	The composition is good with minor spelling or grammatical errors	The annotation is incomplete and lacks important information
Personal Reflection		Student made valid inferences from the article and raised key issues with evidences from the article.	The annotation contains most of the relevant elements and analysis is satisfactory	The annotation is complete and the main idea behind the research is unclear.
Total				