

Instructions

Compose an introductory paragraph.

Write an introductory paragraph to an essay about any one of the three primary sources assigned (either of the two Roosevelt speeches or the Wilson speech).

The introductory paragraph should accomplish several goals:

1. Introduce the subject of your paper.
2. In one sentence clearly state your take on the subject (thesis statement)
3. Briefly explain how you will expound upon your thesis: e.g., what sources are you analyzing? or how is your argument structured? or why is this thesis important? *

This assignment must be composed of complete and edited sentences.

Please follow all the instructions.
