

ACTIVE LEARNING TEMPLATE: Basic Concept

STUDENT NAME _____

CONCEPT _____ REVIEW MODULE CHAPTER _____

Related Content

(E.G., DELEGATION,
LEVELS OF PREVENTION,
ADVANCE DIRECTIVES)

Assistive personnel is a group of paraprofessionals who help others with physical disabilities, health care needs, physical disabilities and basic nursing procedures. Assistive personnel provides safe, affordable and nursing care that is appropriate for health care environment

Underlying Principles

1. A caring attitude
2. Consideration of individuality
3. Cultural considerations
4. Consent
5. Choice of site of care
6. Communication
7. Comprehensive inter-professional care
8. Appropriate treatment
9. Continuity of care
10. Crisis Prevention
11. Continued reassessment

Nursing Interventions

WHO? WHEN? WHY? HOW?

1. The nurse retains accountability for patient outcomes when making delegation decisions.
2. nurses must use critical thinking skills while making decisions such as the evaluation of the patient's conditions.
3. Nurses in the assistive personnel must have a primary commitment to health, safety and the welfare of the patient
4. Interpersonal relationship, trust and essential/delegation process should be adhered to by the personnel
5. Nurses must be familiar with the scope of practice and the task to as to ensure quality in decision making.