

ACTIVE LEARNING TEMPLATE: Basic Concept

STUDENT NAME _____

CONCEPT _____ REVIEW MODULE CHAPTER _____

Related Content

(E.G., DELEGATION,
LEVELS OF PREVENTION,
ADVANCE DIRECTIVES)

Community health nurses recognize helpless populaces and execute measures to enhance wellbeing through direct care, enhancing access, and changing the physical condition, medicinal services culture, and wellbeing strategies. Community nurses can interface powerless customers to pertinent offices and assets inside a group (nourishment banks, covers, emotional wellness focuses) to address customer health issues. Customers require help with referrals or transportation. The community nurses nurture numerous people who are individuals from particular populaces and more inclined to debilitated wellbeing or contrary results related with ailment and ailment.

Underlying Principles

1. Violence
2. Substance use disorders
3. Homelessness
4. Mental health issues
5. Poverty
6. Chronic stress
7. Poor self esteem
8. Access to health care services

Nursing Interventions

WHO? WHEN? WHY? HOW?

1. Coordinate services at a central location.
2. Develop programs that go to the population to deliver health care (home visits, health services bus, on site clinics).
3. Create partnerships to provide free or reduced health care services.
4. Advocate for increased availability of health insurance for the uninsured and underinsured.
5. Evaluate current health care systems and make recommendations that will strengthen access.
6. Collaborate with community leaders to improve/increase the availability of public transportation.
7. Ensure the availability of translators with medical training.