

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Judith Butler and Elizabeth Weed
PART 1 READING JOAN WALLACH SCOTT
1 Speaking Up, Talking Back: Joan Scott's Critical Feminism Judith Butler	11
PART 2 THE CASE OF HISTORY
2 Language, Experience, and Identity: Joan W. Scott's Theoretical Challenge to Historical Studies Miguel A. Cabrera	31
3 Out of Their Orbit: Celebrities and Eccentrics in Nineteenth-Century France Mary Louise Roberts	50
4 Historically Speaking: Gender and Citizenship in Colonial India Mrinalini Sinha	80
5 Gender and the Figure of the "Moderate Muslim": Feminism in the Twenty-First Century Elora Shehabuddin	102
6 A Double-Edged Sword: Sexual Democracy, Gender Norms, and Racialized Rhetoric Éric Fassin	143
PART 3 SEEING THE QUESTION
7 Seeing Beyond the Norm: Interpreting Gender in the Visual Arts Mary D. Sheriff	161
8 Unlikely Couplings: The Gendering of Print Technology in the French Fin-de-Siècle Janis Bergman-Carton	187
9 Screening the Avant-Garde Face Mary Ann Doane	206
PART 4 BODY AND SEXUALITY IN QUESTION
10 The Sexual Schema: Transposition and Transgenderism in Phenomenology of Perception Gayle Salamon	233
11 Foucault and Feminism's Prodigal Children Lynne Huffer	255

12 From the “Useful” to the “Impossible” in the Work of Joan W. Scott Elizabeth Weed	287
Thinking in Time: An Epilogue on Ethics and Politics Wendy Brown	312
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	319
INDEX	321