

Approximately 1 to 2 pages, double-spaced. Cite sources in APA format throughout.

Goal: Introduce the candidate, their campaign, and the party they are running in. There is no analysis in this section. Rather you are introducing the components you will assess later.

The Race: Introduce the race (i.e. President, U.S. Senate, etc.). Who ran within the primaries, who won the primaries, and who are you going to profile throughout this assignment?

The Campaign: Next introduce the candidate. What is their background? What are their major policy positions (sources: the candidate's website, speeches, debates)? What party are they running in?

The paper should be written on Kamala Harris. Explain how she originally ran for the democratic nomination but withdrew and now is on the Biden ticket

Good points to consider is the significance of having a woman who is a minority on the VP ticket.
