

Cross Cultural Psychology

Cultural Heritage Paper Grading Rubric

Criteria	Points Possible	Points Received
CONTENT
Cultural Heritage Defined: Thorough description of your cultural heritage (as you define it) provided	10
Traditions: Examples of different family traditions discussed and described	10
Values: Examples of different family values discussed and described	10
Norms: Examples of different family norms discussed and described	10
History: Thorough description of significant elements of your family history provided	15
Cross Cultural Comparison: Comparison of your family to another culture included	10
Research: Evidence of detailed family research (e.g., interview or internet search).	10
QUALITY
Organization & Coherence Topics are well organized and the paper is easy to follow Writing is clear and easy to understand. Student demonstrated understanding of cultural heritage and associated psychological constructs.	15
Thinking Outside the Box: There is a unique personal element to the paper	10
POINT DEDUCTIONS
Quantity: Less than 4-5 full pages (double spaced, not including cover and references)	-4
Quality: Paper is not in modified APA format Numerous spelling and grammatical errors	-3 -3
Plagiarism There is evidence that concepts were not explained in student's own words	ZERO	ZERO
TOTAL SCORE	100	