

Current Events Journal

Find an online article about a current event that relates to psychology. Then, summarize the article, discuss the relevant psychological concepts, and discuss your opinion. Use the rubric below when writing your paper.

Your paper should be at least ½ to 1 full page, double spaced (Times New Roman, 12 point font). Be sure to include the article, and any other works cited, in a reference page. Be sure to also use in-text citations when appropriate.
