

T100 Devising Project Guidelines for Students

You will read this newspaper and then decide on an article to form the basis of your devised play. Feel free to explore beyond the initial chosen article in your devising.

Your Roles in the project: Playwright

Playwright: responsible for writing the devised script and keeping track of any changes made to the script. The script should have at least 20 lines.

Activities for Devising

Provide at least one static visual representing the play (like an image or original piece of art) or at least one fluid piece of imagery (live movement sequence, video clip, etc)
