

Article Critique Rubric

Category	Excellent 5 pts.	Average 4 pts.	Below Average 3 pts.
Article critique	Submitted work was an article critique rather than an article summary, demonstrating the writer's in depth knowledge and understanding of the differences between these two types of assignments.	Submitted work was generally presented as an article critique rather than an article summary, although the shift of the document may have somewhat strayed from a critique one time.	Submitted work was an article summary rather than an article critique.
Article choice	Writer chose a research article related to one of the five (5) choices presented in the assignment.	Writer chose an article close to one of the five (5) choices presented in the assignment.	Writer did not choose an article related to one of the five (5) choices presented in the assignment.
Article related to the principles of effective classroom management	Submitted work included a thorough and insightful response, one that demonstrated higher order thinking skills, to all five (5) of the principles of effective classroom management in the assignment.	Submitted work included a response, one that demonstrated some higher order thinking skills, to all five (5) of the principles of effective classroom management in the assignment.	Submitted work did not adequately address all five (5) of the principles of effective classroom management in the assignment.
Writing competency	Ideas throughout the response were professionally expressed clearly and coherently in a logical and organized manner; there were minimal (0 to 1) errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting.	The presentation of ideas in the response was expressed in an acceptable manner and was in a somewhat logical and organized sequence; there were no more than 2 or 3 errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting.	The response was not well edited and contained an unacceptable number (4 or more) of errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting. Additionally, ideas were not expressed logically or coherently. The overall response was disorganized.

Total Points Earned: _____

A = 19 - 20

B = 17 - 18

C = 15 - 16

F = 14 and below