

Video Reflection Rubric

	5 pts. Excellent	4 pts. Average	3 pts. Below Average
Knowledge and understanding	The writer clearly illustrated understanding of information presented; key concepts and events were well identified and highlighted.	The writer illustrated some level of understanding of information presented; some key concepts and events were identified and highlighted.	The writer did not clearly demonstrate his/her understanding of the information presented; no mention was made of the critical concepts or events presented.
Application of concepts and ideas	The writer connected or directly linked new insights gained with prior knowledge and experiences, explaining how new information has influenced his/her ideas on both a professional and personal level.	The writer at times connected and/or directly linked new insights gained with prior knowledge and experiences, while providing at least a partial explanation of how new information has influenced his/her ideas on a professional and/or personal level.	The writer did not make a direct connection of the new information presented to prior knowledge or experiences, nor did the writer explain how the information presented changed or influenced his/her ideas on either a professional or personal level.
Writing competency	Ideas throughout the response were expressed clearly and coherently in a logical and organized manner; there were minimal (0 or 1) errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting.	The presentation of ideas in the response was expressed in an acceptable manner and was in a somewhat logical and organized sequence; there were 2 or 3 errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting.	The response was not well edited and contained 4 or more errors in grammar, spelling, and/or APA 7 th edition formatting. In addition, ideas were not expressed logically or coherently. The overall response was disorganized.

Total Points Earned: _____

A = 14 – 15

B = 13

C = 12

F = 11 and below