

Rubric for Discussion Board

Student Name _____

Criteria	Above Average (Excellent)	Average (Good)	Below Average (Poor)	Comments
Content	In response to the discussion topic, the writer consistently posted insightful and clearly written responses that demonstrated critical or higher level thinking skills. Where applicable, the writer referenced assigned readings and other resources. 5 Points	In response to the discussion topic, the writer often posted insightful and clearly written responses that demonstrated critical thinking skills. Where applicable, the writer made some reference to assigned readings and other resources 4 Points	In response to the discussion topic, the writer often failed to post responses that were insightful or clearly written, reflective of higher level thinking skills. Where applicable, the writer did not refer to assigned readings or resources. 3 Points
Organization	The writer consistently presented clearly developed thoughts and ideas that were void of grammatical errors. The writer communicated all ideas in a respectful manner, void of slang, derogatory, and/or stereotypical expressions. 3 Points	The writer often presented clearly developed thoughts and ideas that included some minor grammatical errors. The writer communicated most ideas in a respectful manner, void of derogatory and stereotypical expressions, but included occasionally included some slang. 2.5 Points	The writer did not present clearly developed thoughts and ideas that included several grammatical errors. The writer did not always communicate thoughts and ideas in a respectful manner and used on one or more occasion derogatory and/or stereotypical expressions. 1.5 Points
Delivery of Posts	The writer consistently responded to the posts of at least two other peers in the class within 48 hours. All posts were written according to the style and formatting guidelines of APA (6 th ed.). 2 Points	The writer most often, but not always, responded to the post of at least one other peer in the class within 48 hours. Most posts were written according to the style and formatting guidelines of APA (6 th ed.). 1.5 Points	The writer seldom responded to the posts of other peers within 48 hours. Most posts were not written according to the style and formatting guidelines of APA (6 th ed.). 1.5 Points
Total Points

A = 10 – 9

B = 8 – 7

F= 6 and Below