

Educational Philosophy Format - 4- 6 pages

1. Introduction – Brief intro of what is an Educational Philosophy

- 3 principles stated in complete sentences
- 3 authors – Full names

2. Body paragraphs –

Principle #1: State principle (exactly as stated in introduction) explain, and defend principle.

- Criticism of principle
- Response to criticism
- Author's connection to principle
- Quote from author and page number – e.g. (p.37).
- Explanation/Analysis of quote

Principle #11: State principle (exactly as stated in introduction) explain, and defend principle.

- Criticism of principle
- Response to criticism
- Author's connection to principle
- Quote from author and page number – e.g. (p.112).
- Explanation/Analysis of quote

Principle #111: State principle (exactly as stated in introduction) explain, and defend principle.

- Criticism of principle
- Response to criticism
- Author's connection to principle
- Quote from author and page number – e.g. (p.187).
- Explanation/Analysis of quote

Conclusion: Brief restatement of main ideas and discuss implications for society or education, hopes for the future, recommendations for teachers, and so on.

Students must submit Draft and Rubric with Final copy of Personal Educational Philosophy