

NOTICE.

PURSUANT to law, I shall expose to public auction to the highest bidder, for ready money, at the court house of Amite county, Mississippi, on MONDAY the 27th day of August next, a likely negro man who calls his name JIM; committed to the Jail of said County as a runaway, and who has been advertised as such six months.—JIM says he belongs to Alex. Putney, a negro trader—he says Putney purchased him in Raleigh, North Carolina, of Col. Bell—he says he ran away from Putney near some river—he thinks Pearl River.—JIM appears to be about 24 years old, 5 feet 3 1-2 inches high, not yellow nor very black—his teeth are considerably decayed—had on when committed cotton shirt, dark domestic round jacket, cassinett pantaloons, and an old wool hat.

The owner of said negro not having complied with the law, said negro will be sold to pay jail and other fees.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the plantation of the subscriber, lying in Warren County, ten miles from Vicksburg, some time in February last, a Negro Boy, named about 18 or 20 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, well proportioned in make, very active and sprightly; has a pleasing countenance, smiles when spoken to, and is very intelligent; slightly inclined to the mulatto in color, and has a scar on his face, but not recollected where. He took with him several articles of clothing, amongst which was a coat of Kentucky janes that reached to his feet, or nearly so. Said boy was taken up in March last by Charles Cox, near the mouth of Cole's creek, from whom he made his escape, and has not been heard of from that time to the present.

Peter was brought to this state by Franklin and Ballard, last fall, of whom I purchased him. There is no doubt but that he has denied his own as well as his owner's name; if so, he is easily frightened by the whip, and may be made to tell the truth readily. I will give the above reward of twenty dollars to any person delivering said boy to me, or securing him in any jail, so that I can get him again.

P. NOLAND.

Runaway

FROM the subscriber near Clinton, Greene county Ala., my negro boy named FAGANS, who is heavy built, about five feet eight or ten inches high, near thirty five years old, has a heavy black beard, large and long forehead, thin visage, a remarkable long sharp nose, and having lost one of his front teeth. Any person who will catch the above described boy, and return him or give me any information, shall be liberally rewarded.
