

Essay 1 Rough Draft

Please upload your Essay 1 rough drafts here as soon as you can! It's ok if you are late with these, but you'll need to try your best to upload the rough draft within these next few days so that I can give you feedback for you to move forward with your final draft. The "official" due date is Tuesday, March 16th. Take your time, and the feedback will be completed by the following Tuesday.

Additionally, don't just rush to submit if your rough draft is just an outline or just a single page. You'll want to try your best to have the rough draft be as close to complete as possible so that I can give you stronger feedback.

Remember, it is a process! Your process should include:

1. Carefully reading the prompt & the chosen poem
2. Brainstorming
3. Outlining
4. Rough Draft
5. Incorporate feedback for Final Draft
