

Write an essay of 4-5 pages (1.5 spaced); APA format about the Identity issue of adoptees. You should use quotes and evidence from the book "All you can ever Know" by Nicole Chung and use at least 2 peer-reviewed, scholarly sources and cite and quote them.

Also, include the abstract of the paper. Introduction Thesis statement at end of this paragraph

Need 3 Body Paragraphs that are connected to the thesis.

Each paragraph Develop each part of the thesis in body paragraphs. My point Related details, examples, illustrations, information, the paragraphs stay focused on one main idea, which the writer expresses in clear topic sentences in the beginning of the paragraphs.

Evidence Bring some context from the book or source before the evidence then use evidence as quote from books. Use 2 evidence in each paragraph one from book and one from research that relate to same main point and give context before the evidence. Include page number from the book with the quote (cite them).

Analysis provide more details, examples, research or quotes to demonstrate the ideas and move to quickly through the ideas, without developing the material and proving the points analysis and commentary.

Same thing for other paragraphs.

Conclusion

▪

This paragraph ties your ideas together and links back to the thesis statement.

Just make sure that I don't get high similarity or plagiarism.
