

BIOMETRICS: KEEPING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

By: Noelita Paul

MEDICAL ERRORS NATION'S THIRD BIGGEST KILLER IN 2013

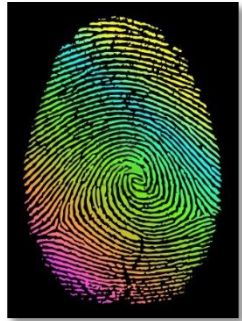

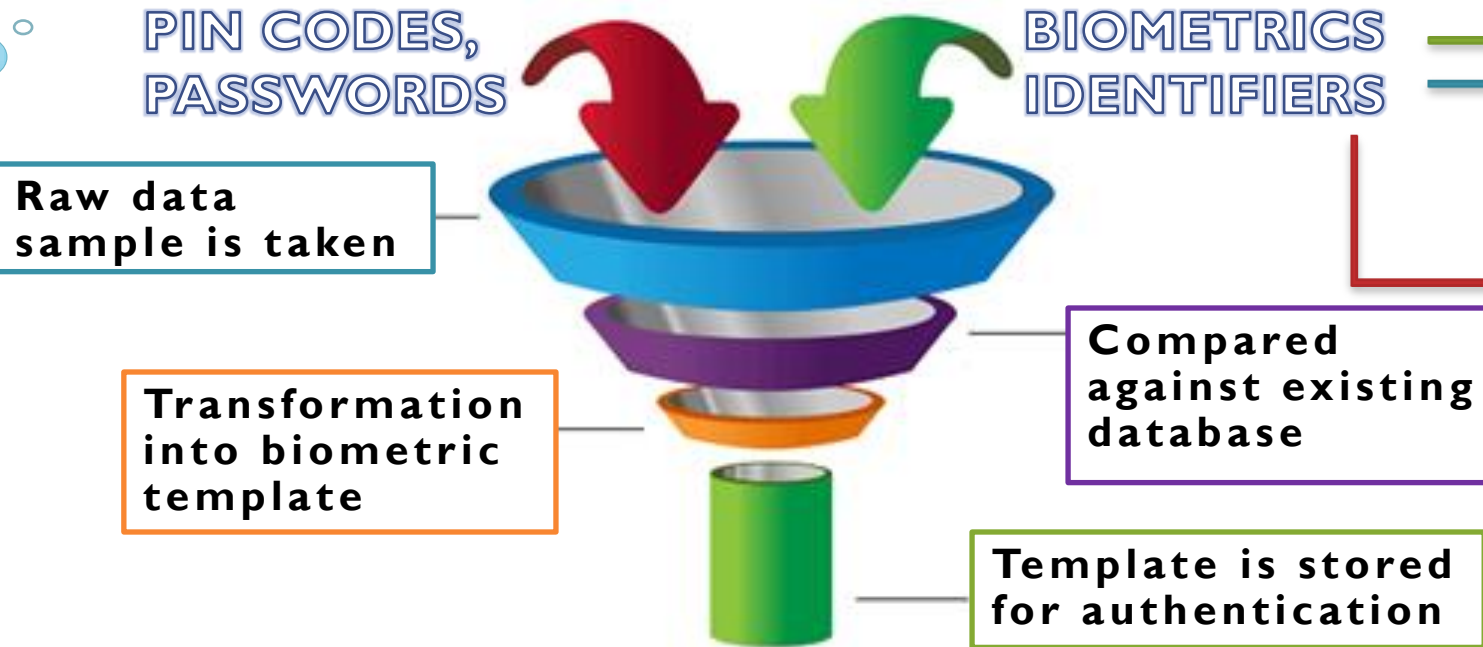

Source: Martin Makary, Michael Daniel study at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine

Jim Sergent, USA TODAY

Department of Health and Human Services Office Of Inspector General annual mortality statistics: Preventable medical errors persist as the No. 3 killer in the U.S. – claiming the lives of some 210,000 - 400,000 people each year

Why Biometrics? For: Accountability, Responsibility, Security, & Convenience

References

James, J. T. (2013, September). A New, Evidence-based Estimate of Patient Harms Associated with Hospital Care. Journal of Patient Safety, 9(3), 122-128. doi:10.1097/pts.0b013e3182948a69

Biometrics: who's watching you? Retrieved October 19, 2016, from <https://www.Eff.Org/wp/biometrics-whos-watching-you>

Zimmerman, m. (N.D.). Biometrics and user authentication. Retrieved from <https://www.Sans.Org/reading-room/whitepapers/authentication/biometrics-user-authentication-122>