

The essay must be Cause and effect and opinion essay; argumentative.

- No first person writing even when giving opinion. Third person can be used.
- Must be five paragraphs. Not more nor less.
- Topic must come from the theme of Education. Topic must be interesting.
- No citation or outside source.
- Focus on grammar.

Assignment is cause/effect in the context of opinion essay. This means, in your cause and effect essay, you will be making arguments to support your cause/effect thesis. In the body paragraphs, you will provide logical explanations and reasons to support your thesis. Additionally, in the paragraph before the conclusion (4 par), you will write a counterargument/refute (an element of the opinion essay).

Organization:

- First paragraph: Introduction: Very strong introduction and hook.
 - Hook must engage (Focus on controversial issue).
 - General background provides a view point of the topic to lead to the thesis.
 - Theses statement: must be cause/effect with an opinion (Focus on language structure). Also, must be very effective and clear.

- Second paragraph: Body 1: Cause → Effect OPINION 1

(First (One cause) cause and its effect)
 - Topic sentence: Opinion.
 - Argument/ fact (common knowledge).
 - Interpretation (rewording fact to fit your narrative).

Make sure to add explanation.

- Third paragraph: Body 2: Cause → Effect OPINION 2
(Second (One cause) cause and its effect)
 - Topic sentence: Opinion.

- Argument/ fact (common knowledge).
- Interpretation (rewording fact to fit your narrative).

Make sure to add explanation.

➤ Fourth Paragraph: Counterargument/refute (Non-opinion point)

- Acknowledge the opposition
 - ✓ Explain why it oppose the thesis (2-3 sentence)
 - ✓ Key words to show Acknowledgement.
- Refute (2-3 sentences)

Make sure to add explanation.

➤ Fifth Paragraph: Conclusion.

IMPORTANT: Follow ALL instructions.