

Final Exam

Professor Loubser
English 1302

Due Date: by 11:59 pm on Tuesday, December 8. Each student will submit the Detailed Outline and the final draft of the Final Exam to the Canvas submission box. Students will also submit the final draft of the Final Exam to TURNITIN. Please refer to the submission instructions at the bottom of this document.

Please be mindful that this submission deadline is different than the submission deadline indicated in the syllabus.

Submission Requirements: Submit two (2) Word documents: the Detailed Outline and the final draft of the Final Exam by the due date via Canvas.

Format and Length Requirements:

Assignment: You will write an analysis on all the works we have read and evaluated in class. Your essay must consist of at least 3 complete pages in length-excluding the works cited page-but may not exceed 5 complete pages in length. Remember, the essay must include a works cited page. In addition, the essay will consist of 5 paragraphs: an introduction, 3 body paragraphs, and a solid conclusion.

Remember, an analytical paper breaks down an issue or an idea into its component parts, evaluates the issue or idea, and presents this breakdown and evaluation to the audience. Critical papers analyze or explain some important point about a piece of literature.

For the purpose of the final exam, you will compose an essay critically analyzing two stories we have read and evaluated in class: The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, and Frankenstein. You will evaluate the masculine prerogative by evaluating how Utterson and the Robert, respectively, assert and relinquish power through their narrative voices.

Suggestions: you may consider the following plan in the development of your final exam:

*In the first body paragraph, you may consider evaluating how Utterson asserts masculine power in the text The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

*In the second body paragraph, you may consider evaluating how Robert asserts masculine power in the text Frankenstein.

*In the last body paragraph, you may consider how Utterson and Robert relinquish their masculine power by evaluating both texts.

The essay must comply with the minimum requirements of the assignment: a minimum of 3 complete pages-excluding the work cited page- to be acceptable and students must incorporate 6 direct quotes (2 quotes from the primary source per body paragraphs) to substantiate the central claim (thesis). The essay will be double-spaced and comply with MLA standards: it must be written in 12 point, Times New Roman. In addition, students must write the essay in the third person and the literary present tense, as has been the expectation all semester. Finally, students will only include quotes from the primary source. Students are forbidden to introduce quotes from any other source.

Submission Requirements:

Final Exam Submission:

You will submit the final exam to two submission boxes.

- The first submission box is located in Canvas, under Module Eight-Final Exam Assignment and Submission Boxes. In this submission box, you will submit the Detailed Outline and the final draft of the Final Exam.
- The second submission box is TURNITIN. In this submission box, you will submit the final draft of the Final Exam. The link to this website is located in Canvas, under Module Eight, though you may also open the page directly using TURNITIN.com

Reminder: Failure to comply with the minimum requirements of the assignment will constitute a 0 (zero) on this assignment.

- Failure to comply with the minimum page requirements will constitute an automatic 0 (zero) on the assignment.
- Failure to include 6 direct quotes from the texts (2 per body paragraph) will constitute an automatic 0 (zero) on the assignment.
- Failure to include a works cited page or to parenthetically cite source material correctly per MLA specifications will result in an automatic 0 (zero) on the assignment, as that is plagiarism.
- Failure to submit the final essay onto TURNITIN will constitute an automatic 0 (zero) on the assignment. Additionally, failure to submit the essay onto the Canvas submission box will constitute an automatic 0 (zero) on the assignment.
- Failure to abide by MLA style requirements will adversely affect your grade.

Guidelines:

- Use Times New Roman, 12pt.
- Double-space.
- Indent for paragraphs.
- Use MLA style for heading and format: 1" margins on all sides, place your name, my name, your class and section number, and the date at the top left-hand corner of the first page. Make sure your last name appears in the top right-hand corner of the page along with the page number.
- Your idea should be central.
- You must cite from the text in order to support your claims about the text.
- Use MLA style to cite and document your sources: parenthetical documentation and works cited.

- You must have a Works Cited page with the correct information and formatting. This element will be included in your final grade.
