

Final Research Project Guidelines

The final research project is worth 100 points total.

Your presentation will be evaluated on the following:

- (50 points) Create a power point presentation with a minimum of 10 slides and include Reference Slide with at least 3 references that details the sources you used.
- (10 points) Intro Slide: Identify the topic that interests you. We have covered several topics this course from social beliefs, behavior, attitudes, culture, conformity, obedience, persuasion, group influence, prejudice and aggression, interpersonal communication, conflict and peacemaking.
- (20 points) Describe how your topic is related to social thinking, social influence, and/or social relations.
- (20 points) Highlight the following points in your Power Point
  1. Explanation of issue
  2. Student's position (perspective)
  3. Evidence: Selecting and using information to investigate a point of view
  4. Influence of context and assumptions (related outcomes, implications, consequences)
  5. Conclusion