

Paper Title: Week 5 final
No. of Pages: 2 Pages
Paper Style: APA Paper Type: Annotated Bibliography
Taken English? Yes English as Second Language? Yes
Feedback Areas: Focus/Thesis Statement, Citations & References
Paper Goals: Annotation bibliographies

Proofing Summary:

Hi, Nardello.

I'm Rebecca, your writing tutor for the Writing Center. I have reviewed your submission and have several suggestions that will help you revise. Please feel free to contact us through a 24/7 live writing session with any follow-up questions or for any clarification.

Below, you will find a revision plan along with margin comments within your paper. Use my suggestions as a starting point for the revision process. Note that I have not proofread the draft for minor errors, but rather, focused on larger concerns such as idea development. For a complete look at grammar and punctuation, please use the Grammarly software available under "Writing Center" in your classroom.

You have done a nice job of providing two good sources for your topic on the military/stress/depression.

For your revisions, I suggest focusing on:

1) Purpose- Please review the exact directions for this assignment. In general, An annotated bibliography has two main parts: 1) the citation of your book, article, document and 2) your summative and reflective paragraph (which is called an annotation). The citation must be in APA style. A summary should be more than one sentence and the reflection should be thorough. The purpose of the annotation is to inform the reader of the relevance, accuracy, and quality of the sources cited and how this source will be used as you write your own research paper.

For more help with making an annotated bibliography, click here:
<http://writingcenter.bridgepointeducation.com/annotated-bibliography>

2) APA formatting- Even though this is not the reference page, the citations should still be in APA format. Remember to use hanging indentation. The actual reference should be slightly separated from the text (the annotation). Right now, they are all on the same lines.

Here is an example of how a citation would look:

Author's Last Name, Initials. (Publication Year). Title of article. Title of Periodical, volume #(issue #), pp–pp. doi:xx.xxxxxxxx

For more help with this formatting, please review the guidelines here:
<http://writingcenter.bridgepointeducation.com/format-your-reference-list>

Good luck with this assignment.

Annotation 5:EBook 1:

Reference: Institute of Medicine (U.S.). (2012). Treatment for posttraumatic stress disorder in military and veteran populations: Initial assessment. Washington, D.C: National

For APA, the titles are not italicized- the sources are (books, magazines, newspapers, etc.)

Academies Press. This should be in APA format- use hanging indentation for the 2nd line on.

Annotation: Retrieved from <http://www.ebrary.com>. This book is very resourceful as it touches

You need a conjunction of some kind between research and stress. A semi-colon separates two independent thoughts.

the core of my research; stress and depression in the military. Besides its relevance, the book is highly credible as it drafted and authored by the Institute of Medicine and the Board on the You're missing a word.

Committee of the ongoing treatment of Posttraumatic Stress and disorders. Similarly, the book is easily available as it is freely available both in the Google books and the Ebrary website. The book primarily addresses Posttraumatic stress disorders (PTSD), specifically on the battled

This first paragraph should really focus on a summary of the book. One sentence is really not suffice.

American servicemen serving in both Iraq and Afghanistan.

The insight of the book on the background, impression, diagnosis and the treatment of soldiers suffering from PTSD is a primary key area in my research. The book will also offer insight on diagnosis and therapeutic gaps in the treatment and management of servicemen leaving with stress and disorders. The book will also act as hugely as the background of the study

See if you can revise this part.

discussing stress and disorder as well as the Posttraumatic Stress Disorder in general.

EBook 2:

Moore, B. A., Moore, B. A., & Penk, W. (2011). Treating PTSD in military personnel. New York:

Guilford Press.

No italicis for the titles. Use hanging indentation.

Retrieved from <http://www.ebrary.com>. Moore's book on treating Posttraumatic stress

This should be in APA style.

disorders is another extremely important book that addresses the clinical assessment and the treatment of PTSD in military personnel. Besides addressing my study's participants, the book outlines a detailed problem of stress and disorders in military personnel and continues to offer

It's important to provide more details on the contents of the book.

clinical ways of treating PTSD. This Scholar work of Moore and co authors makes the text both authorities and reliable. In fact, the book is cited by several scholarly studies done on the problem of stress and disorders in the military academy.

Apart from its credibility, the book is easily available in the google books and Ebrary website among other academic repositories. The authors have also written other books and done scholarly studies in mental health research. The book will offer insight into the treatment and the clinical implications of the PTSD in servicemen, offering a strong problem statement of my research. Try to add more to how this particular book will help you in your research project and the specific topic.

