

Grand Maester (King's Landing)

King's Landing

The Grand Maester of King's Landing is expected to support the King of the Six Kingdoms with a wide range of operationally essential tasks. You will be expected to work with the other members of the team to deliver the highest level of service. You will be expected to have extensive experience in the following areas:

- Giving counsel to noblemen and/or leaders on various military, political, and personal matters (in this case, you will serve the Iron Throne).
- Attending to people's medical and educational needs.
- Acting as resident medical expert (setting bones, knowledge of medicinal herbs and potions to aid fevers and internal illnesses, etc.).
- Observing changes in weather / watching for shifting of the seasons.
- Front of house duties: to include meeting, greeting and guiding guests at functions.
- Assistance with stock checking and stock rotation.
- Acceptance and movement of goods deliveries.
- Sending long distance communiques using trained ravens.
- Tending to a castle's rookery.
- Any other tasks that support the daily operation of a castle.

You are expected to:

- Be flexible with working hours and be adaptable to change. Must be flexible to work at any time, sometimes on very short notice.
- Be physically fit and be able to carry items as required.
- Be thorough and pay attention to detail.
- Exhibit excellent timekeeping skills.
- Compose yourself with honesty and integrity with an exemplary level of discretion.
- Be interested in your own personal and professional development.
- Offer counsel and assist in the day-to-day management of the realm.
- Attend daily meetings of the King's Small Council.
- Have a positive can-do attitude to tasks.

Requirements

The Grand Maester of King's Landing is expected to have worked at the highest level of service for a nobleman or have experience working in education or medicine. You should be educated to an acceptable level and be able to demonstrate a wide range of skills and knowledge within your respective discipline. It is expected that you will have at least five years' experience, be adaptable to change and embrace new challenges.

All applicants must be male, and must be willing to drop their family name, eschew all familial background and political allegiances, give up their right to inheritance, and take an oath of celibacy. Applicants must demonstrate loyalty, while avoiding superfluous personal relationships, as they must commit to serving a new king in the event that the castle is defeated.

Do not apply if you are not willing and able to wear chains at all times, even while sleeping.

Preferred Skills

- Attention to detail.
- Flexibility and adaptability to juggle a range of different tasks and to work extra hours to meet deadlines.
- Discretion and an understanding of confidentiality issues.
