

Instructions: Answer the following sections in a word document. You may answer the sections in whichever order you wish. Turn in your exam via the link on D2L by 11:59 pm on Tuesday, July 13th.

Section I. Short Answer: In a short paragraph (four to five sentences), identify and explain the historical significance of four of the following items (25 points each, 100 points total):

Freedom Rides	War on Drugs
Détente	Computer Revolution
Gulf of Tonkin Resolution	Equal Rights Amendment
Port Huron Statement	César Chavez
Pentagon Papers	Voting Rights Act
Camp David Accords	American Indian Movement
My Lai Massacre	Betty Friedan
Barry Goldwater	Malcolm X

Section II: Essay: Answer one of the following questions in essay form. Organize your essay, use specific examples, and incorporate materials from the readings and videos (if applicable). Your essay must be at least two pages in length. (150 points):

1. Discuss the events and competing ideologies that led to the onset of the Cold War conflict between the United States and Soviet Union. How did these things influence U.S. foreign policy for four decades, and how did efforts to prevent the expansion of communism abroad impact Americans at home?
2. Choose three contemporary issues impacting Americans today and discuss how they are directly connected to the historical events, movements, and ideological developments we have studied in this course. How can studying history in context be used to construct solutions to longstanding and/or present-day challenges?
