Attention, TIA, Credibility, Thesis	INTRODUCTION I. How many of you have been on a vacation and something has gone wrong? Either you lose your phone charge, you can't seem to find the only pair of rental car keys, and to top it off you have no sense of direction at your destination. II. I am sure we all been there before. III. For me, the pre-planning stage of a vacation can stress me out. Making sure I know everything before I go, so you don't feel lost in a foreign place. And I always want to know about the places the locals go to unwind. IV. Throughout this speech I will provide three examples on how to pick the best Royal Caribbean Cruise by telling you how to pick your location, how to choose your excursions, and how to experience the local culture.

Main Point, Sub-Point, Sub-Sub-Point	BODY I. Before even thinking about going on a Royal Caribbean Cruise, you have to find the best location that fits your needs. A. On Royal Caribbean .com, it is an easy process to find the perfect cruise for you (1). B. The first step is the easiest of them all, in the search bar type in Royal Caribbean Cruise.com. This will take you directly to their site. C. In the upper right hand corner click on “Find a Cruise.” D. This will take you to a different screen with tons of options. 1. You can search your cruising destinations, the ports you are leaving from, the dates you plan to cruise, and how many nights you want to stay. 2. For the speech, I decided to pick the 4 night Bahama cruise, leaving from Orlando, Florida on March 11th, 2019. E. According to Jackie Sills, another consideration when planning to pick your location is using a Pinterest board. In the search bar type in “bucket list vacation” and Pinterest will generate keywords like affordable, ideas, or Europe and you have the option to click on the words for additional information. Or you can scroll down on the page to find inspiration. More times than not this will lead to a personal blog about someone's vacation experience (Sills 1). F. Picking a location can make or break your experience. Taking the time to think about your destination and your needs will make your vacation 10 times more enjoyable.	(*Fill in any actions)
Transition	Now that I showed you how to pick the best location, let me show you how to choose your excursions.

	II. After you pick your cruise on Royal Caribbean’s website, it will take you to another screen with it ships itinerary and excursions for each port. 1. Scroll down until you find your first port. For the Bahamas 4 night curise, your first port is Cococay. 2. On the screen, Royal Caribbean put together all excursion ideas for you. 3. You can pick to jet ski, play on the floating water playground, or parasail. 4. If you aren’t the adventurous type keep scrolling down the page and there is a section on beach bungalows you can rent. 5. Another tip is to check in with the activities manager on the cruise to schedule activites. 6. If you keep scroll down the page, you are able see other information about other ports on the curise and there excursions. Royal Caribbean makes it super easy to find the best excursions for you. B. According to YTravel, “When planning your trip you will want to know about the must-visit tourist attractions and the best free things to do” (1). Popular attractions booked out in advance, so showing up the day of you are not generated to get a tour. C. Another helpful tip when planning excursions is making a list that includes: Free things to do, best walking trails, city tours, famous resturants, and day trips. (YTravel 1). This will help organize what excursions are best for you.	Show Slide
Transition	Now that I showed you how to choose your excursions, let me tell you how to experience the local culture.
	III. Finding the local vibe on vacation can be challenging to experience, when you are not familiar with the area. A. Luckily, Royal Caribbean has a whole page designed to learn more about the local culture. 1. On Royal Caribbean's home page, at the top click on "The Experience" then click on "Shore Excursions." This will take you to a different cite. 2. Next hover on "Plan a Cruise" then click on "Destination" The screen will show you different destinations and tell you more information about the area. 3. If you keep scrolling the pages are divided by parts of the Caribbean, which makes it helpful. B. In the aricle, Mom Vogage by Hilton, they explain when experiencing the local vibe "get lost in the neighborhoods." Wonder around the street, pop in a local caf�, and walk into locally owned stores. Also, ask the locals there favorite resturants and things to do. Culture plays a big role in planning a vacation, soaking up the local culture will only benefit you in the future (1).

Review of Main Points Clincher/tag/ exit line or Final Appeal	CONCLUSION I. Throughout this speech I provided three examples on how to pick the best Royal Caribbean Cruise by telling you how to pick your location, how to choose your excursions, and how to experience the local culture. II. Planning a vacation can be a stressful time. However, Royal Caribbean can make the process simple and much more enjoyable. III. I want to leave you with this anonymous quote, "Travel is the only thing you buy that makes you richer."
