

Individual Reflective Journal (20%)

Due: Week 10

Via "Assessments" → "Assignment"

Individual Reflective Journal (20%)

- Reflective Journal to be developed and maintained by students throughout the semester that summarizes key aspects what they have learned during the course about Project Leadership.
- This summary includes all of exercises done by students inside or outside the classroom from Week 1 to Week 7 (inclusive).

Individual Reflective Journal (20%)

- Submit MS Word document to eCentennial
Go to: "Assessments" → "Assignment"
- Starting from Week 1 to Week 7 (inclusive) write a 750-word reflection of what you have learned.
Not what was taught, but what you have learned.
- Where there any AHA! moments / surprises?
Can/have you applied what you learned?
What was the interaction / response from your fellow students about what was being taught?
- Be candid and honest.

Individual Reflective Journal (20%)

- Format: Essay (Times New Roman 12 font size, Use 1" margins top / bottom / left / right), double spaced.
- Include a cover page with your full name (exactly the same as the one shown in eCentennial), student #, and Centennial email address.
- Students are responsible for verifying that they have uploaded the correct document to Dropbox.
- Uploading an incorrect or incomplete assignment is not a valid excuse.
- Incorrect or incomplete assignments will be considered late (at 10% deducted per day) until the mistake is rectified.

Marking considerations

- 50%
 - Integrating relevant course concepts/tools
 - “Stating the obvious” vs. “High-quality reflection” on the lessons learned
- 50%
 - Future plans to integrate course concepts/tools
 - Creative ways to “shape” the reflection

Plagiarism Warning!

- Your paper will be submitted to Turnitin for academic integrity verification.
- Plagiarism charge will result in an automatic 0 grade and written notification on your academic record.
- There will not be a second chance to “resubmit” assignment.