

Instructions:

- Respond to both questions.
- Generate a thoughtful analysis in response to the questions. Tie your response to the provided video, as well as to your own broader understanding of international trade and globalization.
- Be thorough yet concise 300-350 words per response.
- You do not need to cite the video. However, if you do use any outside sources, you must include a citation.

Prompt:

1. Explain comparative advantage as described it in the Video Engager. How does abundance or scarcity in certain factors of production affect whether a country has a comparative advantage in one particular good over another?
2. Politicians often express opposition to trade agreements, particular when it comes to protecting against job losses. Based on the information from the video and your own understanding, if you were a politician, what would your stance be on international trade and globalization? Why would this be your position?
