

LIT 652 Journal Guidelines and Rubric

In this course, journals will be used for reflection in Modules Four, Six, and Eight. The journal assignment is a private conversation between you and the instructor, and thus you are encouraged to deeply explore the themes of global literature that you have been presented.

Note: In these journal assignments, be sure to connect your own experience to what is being asked of you in the particular journal prompt. Reflect on each question and support your answers using specific details and relevant examples. In reflecting on the themes of global literature that you have explored, describe how you have applied (or will apply) what you have learned.

Rubric

Guidelines for Submission: Submit assignment as a Word document with double spacing, 12-point Times New Roman font, and one-inch margins.

Critical Elements	Proficient (100%)	Needs Improvement (75%)	Not Evident (0%)	Value
Application of Concepts	Applies an understanding of the themes of global literature to questions posed in the prompt using specific details	Applies an understanding of the themes of global literature to questions posed in the prompt, but response lacks detail	Does not apply an understanding of the themes of global literature to questions posed in the prompt	40
Personal Reflection	Includes a clear and relevant personal reflection and makes connections to own experiences in relation to the themes of global literature so far studied	Includes a personal reflection, but connections are not clear or lack detail	Does not include a personal reflection	40
Articulation of Response	Journal is mostly free of errors of organization and grammar; errors are marginal and rarely interrupt the flow	Journal contains errors of organization and grammar, but these are limited enough so that the assignment can be understood	Journal contains errors of organization and grammar, making the assignment difficult to understand	20
Total				100%