

Participation Lab #4

Researching Technical Subjects

Find three scholarly sources that deal with the subject of website design. A scholarly source is a source that has been peer reviewed and will be found in an academic journal. Try to make the sources you find relevant for your final group project. Start with the keywords, Human Computer Interaction, Computer-Mediated Communication or Web Design. Format the three sources in APA formatting.

Tip:

You can use these sources
for your annotated
bibliography assignment
