Write a short essay (500 words or less). You should focus on the following questions in your response: How did the first follower show influence? What is the power of influence the first follower has? What can you do to build your influence in a variety of roles within a team? When is influence negative? When is influence positive? Is negative influence leadership? Why or why not?

In addition to the video, you should cite at least one other academic resource (book, trade journal, journal article, textbook) that backs up your answers in this essay. The citation should be in Chicago style.

This assignment will be graded using the grading scale and grading standards for written work provided in the syllabus. You should include a cover page, 500 word or less essay, and a reference page for this assignment. The assignment should follow the guidelines for written work.
