

Follow up Questions for "Lutins":

- 1) Identify the climax of the story and the main conflict.
- 2) As viewers, who are we meant to feel pathos for? WHY?
- 3) Describe 3 physical characteristics that paint the lady as the villain. What is meant to represent? Why does she consistently reject the truce?
- 4) How does the music in the film contradict the action? What do you think is the purpose of this?
- 5) How is the theme of REDEMPTION shown through the story. Provide specific examples.

Questions for "The End":

- 1) Describe the physical look of the other scarecrows. How is our protagonist drawn differently? Why?
- 2) How does the absence of colour in story help enhance the mood of the film? Would the mood change if colour was added?
- 3) Identify how the scarecrow symbolizes the course themes of isolation and redemption. Provide specific examples.