

Name
Course/Section
Professor
Date

Paper Title

Introduction

- a) Short summary of project/introduction of documents: Describe authors/biases/content
- b) Thesis statement
- c) Preview/introduce your argument subjects (INTRODUCE YOUR SOURCES BY AUTHOR AND TITLE)
- d) Transition to Argument Subject One

Argument Subject/Paragraph One

M: Main Point
E: Evidence/Examples (from your sources)
A: Analysis of evidence
L: Link back to Thesis

Argument Subject/Paragraph Two

M: Main Point
E: Evidence/Examples (from your sources)
A: Analysis of evidence
L: Link back to Thesis

Argument Subject/Paragraph Three

M: Main Point
E: Evidence/Examples (from your sources)
A: Analysis of evidence
L: Link back to Thesis

Argument Subject/Paragraph Four

M: Main Point
E: Evidence/Examples (from your sources)
A: Analysis of evidence
L: Link back to Thesis

Additional Body Paragraphs- as many as necessary to utilize sources and support your thesis.

Conclusion

- a) Restate thesis (DO NOT repeat it!)
- b) Concisely link argument subjects to the thesis statement
- c) Connect thesis and analysis to broader class/historical themes
- d) Meaning and significance of the documents
- e) Individual reflection on documents/assignment /research process