John Poem

"In the Beginning was the Word,
and the Word was with God,
and the word was God."

John spoke of a man who he says is the son of God.
People began to follow him around as he performed miracles,
Changing water into wine and going to Jerusalem to his Father's house.

He began baptizing people in the waters of Judea.
Rejoicing at the news, John the Baptist was happy to know,
His prophecy will be filled.

Then he found me, blind from birth.
He gave me sight for the first time in my life,
And from then on, I followed him.

The people of Jerusalem try to stone him
As he announced he was the son of god.
But he escaped when they tried to stone him.

Not long after I heard that he performed another miracle, Resurrecting a man. But the Chief Priests did not like to hear this,
For Jesus says that he has foreseen his own death.

While washing our feet,
he gives us a new commandment.
To love one another.

Not long after he gained the belief of the apostles,
Jesus is arrested by Judas and his soldiers.
He is then interrogated by the Prefect.

I hear that he was reluctant to condemn, but who knows for sure.
All I know is that the son of god was crucified on the cross by the consent of Pilate.
And on the cross was "Jesus of Nazareth the King of the Jews".

Although Crucified, His spirit remains.
The miracles he performed remain close to heart, for he gave me sight.
Not just in my eyes, but also in belief.

I put onto you the belief I have. I hope that you can see the wonders he performed,
Allow yourself to believe in Him and the Son he sent to save us.
For when the time comes, we will be protected due to our faithfulness to him.
