

Post-Philosophy of Classroom Management and Reflection Rubric

CATEGORY	Excellent 06	Adequate (Average) 05	Poor (Below Average) 04
Philosophy statement required areas (student goals for coming year, areas that need to be included in plan and rationale, beliefs about role as a teacher and their basis, legal and ethical responsibilities needed to maintain a safe and secure environment)	Included all required areas in a thorough manner, indicating the author's higher order thinking and reflection.	Included all required areas in an acceptable manner, indicating some level of thinking and reflection on the part of the author.	Did not include all required areas; areas included indicated a lack of thinking and reflecting on the part of the author.
Philosophy statement included beliefs about student behavior (the most common cause of student misbehavior, most effective teacher response/consequence with student misbehavior, your response as a parent to a behavior problem with your child, how current responses relate to those used while you were growing up)	Included all required areas in a thorough manner, indicating the author's higher order thinking and reflection.	Included all required areas in an acceptable manner, indicating some level of thinking and reflection on the part of the author.	Did not include all required areas; areas included indicated a lack of thinking and reflecting on the part of the author.
Classroom management beliefs facilitate goal achievement	Indicated the author's high level of both insight and self-reflection in composing this response.	Indicated an adequate level of insight and/or self-reflection on the part of the author in composing this response.	Response did not indicate the author's insight and/or self-reflection in composing this response.
Reflection statement	This statement very thoroughly described the similarities and differences between the Pre- and Post-statements, based the author's thoughtful and honest examination and comparison of the two statements; it was a minimum of one page in length.	This statement adequately described the similarities and differences between the Pre- and Post- statements, based on the author's examination and comparison of the two statements; it was a minimum of one page in length.	This statement did not adequately describe the similarities and differences between the Pre- and Post-statements. The length of the statement was under a page in length.
Quality of response (writing free of grammatical and spelling errors, APA 7th ed. style used)	Response was professionally done with minimal (0-2) errors in grammar, spelling, and APA 7th ed. style usage.	Response was adequately done with several (3 or 4) errors in grammar, spelling, and APA 7th ed. style usage.	Response did not demonstrate professionalism of writing, containing 5 or more errors in grammar, spelling, and APA 7 th ed. style usage.

Total Points Earned: _____

A = 28 – 30

B = 26 - 27

C = 23 - 25

F = 22 and below