ABSTRACT (ABSTRACT)

Bullying is a major problem in schools because every 7 minutes a child is bullied. Revenge is the strongest motivation for school shootings like the Virginia Tech Massacre or the Taber Massacre. Some kids take it harder than others. 1 out of 10 students drop out of school because of repeated bullying. Harassment and bullying have been linked to 75% of school-shooting incidents. Some say if we can end bullying we can end gangs. Statistics say 39% of middle schoolers and 36% of high schoolers say they don't feel safe at school. People who have disabilities are most likely to get bullied. Did you know 77% of students are bullied mentally, physically, and verbally? Bullying should not be tolerated anywhere no matter what and it should not be covered up or ignored. When children are exposed to parental violence and aggression, they may learn lessons about how to respond to problems in a negative way, instead of more positive ways to deal with there problems. Bullying can start early but by the time they are teens a significant number continue to be involved in bullying, or are victimized through bullying.

FULL TEXT

Youth discrimination, hatred, and bullying in schools are a North American issue and it needs to stop. Discrimination should not be tolerated and it is underlooked in today's society. It can include gender, age, and people with disabilities like ADD (Attention Deficit Disorder) or ADHD (Attention Hyperactivity Disorder), racism, pregnancy, and religion. It can affect a person's life and their feelings. Native Americans or African American people use to be used as slaves and treated poorly because of their race. It should not matter what a person looks like but the kind of person they are. The definition for discrimination is the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people or things, especially on the grounds of race. In schools there is also hatred. Hatred is a growing problem in schools. Hatred is intense dislike or ill will. It can be various mean activities against a group or someone. Teens who feel hated may not enjoy coming to school then they skip classes. It should not be tolerated in any school in North America. It is mean, cruel, unjust, and it is disrespectful. Kids should be punished for any hatred crimes and teachers and principals should be a little less tolerant and they should quite covering it up. Statistics show hatred crimes are either ignored or covered up. Bullying in schools is also a major problem. Bullying is a major problem in schools because every 7 minutes a child is bullied. Revenge is the strongest motivation for school shootings like the Virginia Tech Massacre or the Taber Massacre. Some kids take it harder than others. 1 out of 10 students drop out of school because of repeated bullying. Harassment and bullying have been linked to 75% of school-shooting incidents. When children are exposed to parental violence and aggression, they may learn lessons about how to respond to problems in a negative way, instead of more positive ways to deal with there problems. Bullying can start early but by the time they are teens a significant number continue to be involved in bullying, or are victimized through bullying. Parent could keep their opinions to themselves. There are solutions to end it though. To end bullying, hatred, discrimination we could start after school programs like a youth center. There is also were a pink shirt to end bullying on February 27th. Schools all across Canada are participating init. Parents can create awareness and talk to their kids about bullying and the affect of it on people. The government should create laws on bullying. Why should any of it be tolerated? Kids and teens should not have to feel hurt or even unsafe in the school they go to. We need to change our ways or there will be an increase in violence in the world. People should learn to love and be more accepting other than hate. Parents should keep their opinion to themselves so their kids or teens do not pick up on it.

Bullying, hatred, and discrimination should not be tolerated anywhere or anytime and we need to change now before its to late.
