

Introduction to Public Health Project Rubric

Worth: 20 points

To obtain the most project points, use this rubric as your guide.

All projects due Monday, 11/13/17.

15-20pts

- Clearly states public health issue and population affected.
- Provides ample background information.
- Describe intervention(s) and whether they are primary, secondary and/or tertiary.
- Correct APA citation for each reference
- Consistently follows rules of standard English.

10-14.9pts

- Adequately states public health issue and population affected.
- Provides ample background information with few lapses.
- Describe intervention(s) and whether they are primary, secondary and/or tertiary with few lapses.
- Correct APA citation for each reference with few corrections needed.
- Generally, follows rules of standard English.

5-9.9pts

- Loosely states public health issue and population affected.
- Achieves little completeness and wholeness though organization attempted.
- Interventions inappropriately stated or failed to be stated.
- APA citation is generally not followed.
- Generally, does not follow rules of standard English.

0-4.9pts

- Does not state public health issue and population affected.
- Little evidence of organization and completeness.
- Interventions not stated.
- APA citation is not used.
- Does not follow rules of standard English.

