

Consider the linear system

$$x' = -x + 2y$$

$$y' = \alpha x - y.$$

- a) For what values of α is the equilibrium point $(0, 0)$ a stable node?
- b) For the specific value of $\alpha = 2$, determine the general solution by finding the eigenvalues and eigenvectors of the matrix. Sketch the phase portrait.