

BROCHURE

TEN COMMUNITY RESOURCES & TEN SCHOOL RESOURCES IN SPECIAL NEEDS EDUCATION.

TEN COMMUNITY RESOURCES

NICHCY (<http://nichcy.org/families-community>)

NICHCY has managed to host all ages with disabilities by giving them hope. The gathering has now become a community on its own.

PACER (<http://www.pacer.org/>)

The mission of PACER Center (Parent Advocacy Coalition for Educational Rights) is based in Minnesota where children and young adults are hosted up to their adulthood. The organization equips them with the rightful skills that help them adapt better to the outside world.

Easter Seals (<http://www.easterseals.com>)

Easter Seals focuses on the children and the young adults who have autism. Their goal is to give the disabled a lively lifestyle regardless of their past.

TEN COMMUNITY RESOURCES

A Rosie Place (<http://arosieplace.org>)

A Rosie Place is a full time care premises, that bring together families with disabilities from different places across the world. They are not specific on what kind of disability they handle.

The Federation for Children with Special Needs (<http://fcsn.org/index.php>)

The Federation for Children provides a new dawn to the disabled and their families by providing the relevant information necessary in the "taking care" process and right strategies within a community.

Angelman Syndrome Foundation (<http://www.angelman.org/>)

The Angelman Syndrome Foundation has made it known that they can treat and take care for the disabled through education and research. They also offer support to their families.

TEN COMMUNITY RESOURCES

TASH (<http://tash.org>)

TASH is an international group meant to take care of the disabled, found within communities that lack the resources or support systems, across the world. The group has established research platforms that give substantial information to both parents and the community on the best way to take care of the disabled.

Through the Looking Glass (<http://www.lookingglass.org/>)

Through the Looking Glass (TLG) being a national center has managed to do numerous researches on the issues that are commonly experienced by the disabled. The vital information has made it easy for them to handle special needs in a professional way. It has indeed improved the lives of many.

AllExperts – Special Education (<http://www.allexperts.com/cl2/636/education/Special-Education/>)

This is a website entirely dedicated to the disabled families who are trying to reach out for information and queries associated with the challenges faced. It has hosted a number of expertises from various special needs dockets. Basically, the website is a community on its own.

TEN COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Family Voices (<http://www.familyvoices.org>)

Family Voices, as the name suggests, it has been at the front gear of ensuring families have a resourceful channel of opinions and consultation of special needs related cases. However, It does not focus on the disabled only.

TEN SCHOOL RESOURCES

Geneva Center for Autism,

The Geneva Centre for Autism provides clinical care services, coaching, and support to all ages with Autism Spectrum Disorder and their families.

WillowWood School, (traditional, academic, special needs/grades 1-12/coed)

WillowWood provides support on specific areas that the disabled face delay through individualized programming.

Collingwood School

The school focuses on hearing impairment among children and teenagers. It has established a definite focus on the deaf through training programs and conducting activities that help them participate within the community.

QSI International School of Shenyang

The School can accommodate mild learning disabled students in the regular classroom across the Shenyang community as well as other surrounding groups.

TEN SCHOOL RESOURCES

Knightsbridge International

The school has a huge number of students who have a challenge in adhering to instructions. The professional educators have the persistence and swift skills, hence providing adaptable conditions for the students to fit within the range of understanding instructions.

The American School of Kinshasa

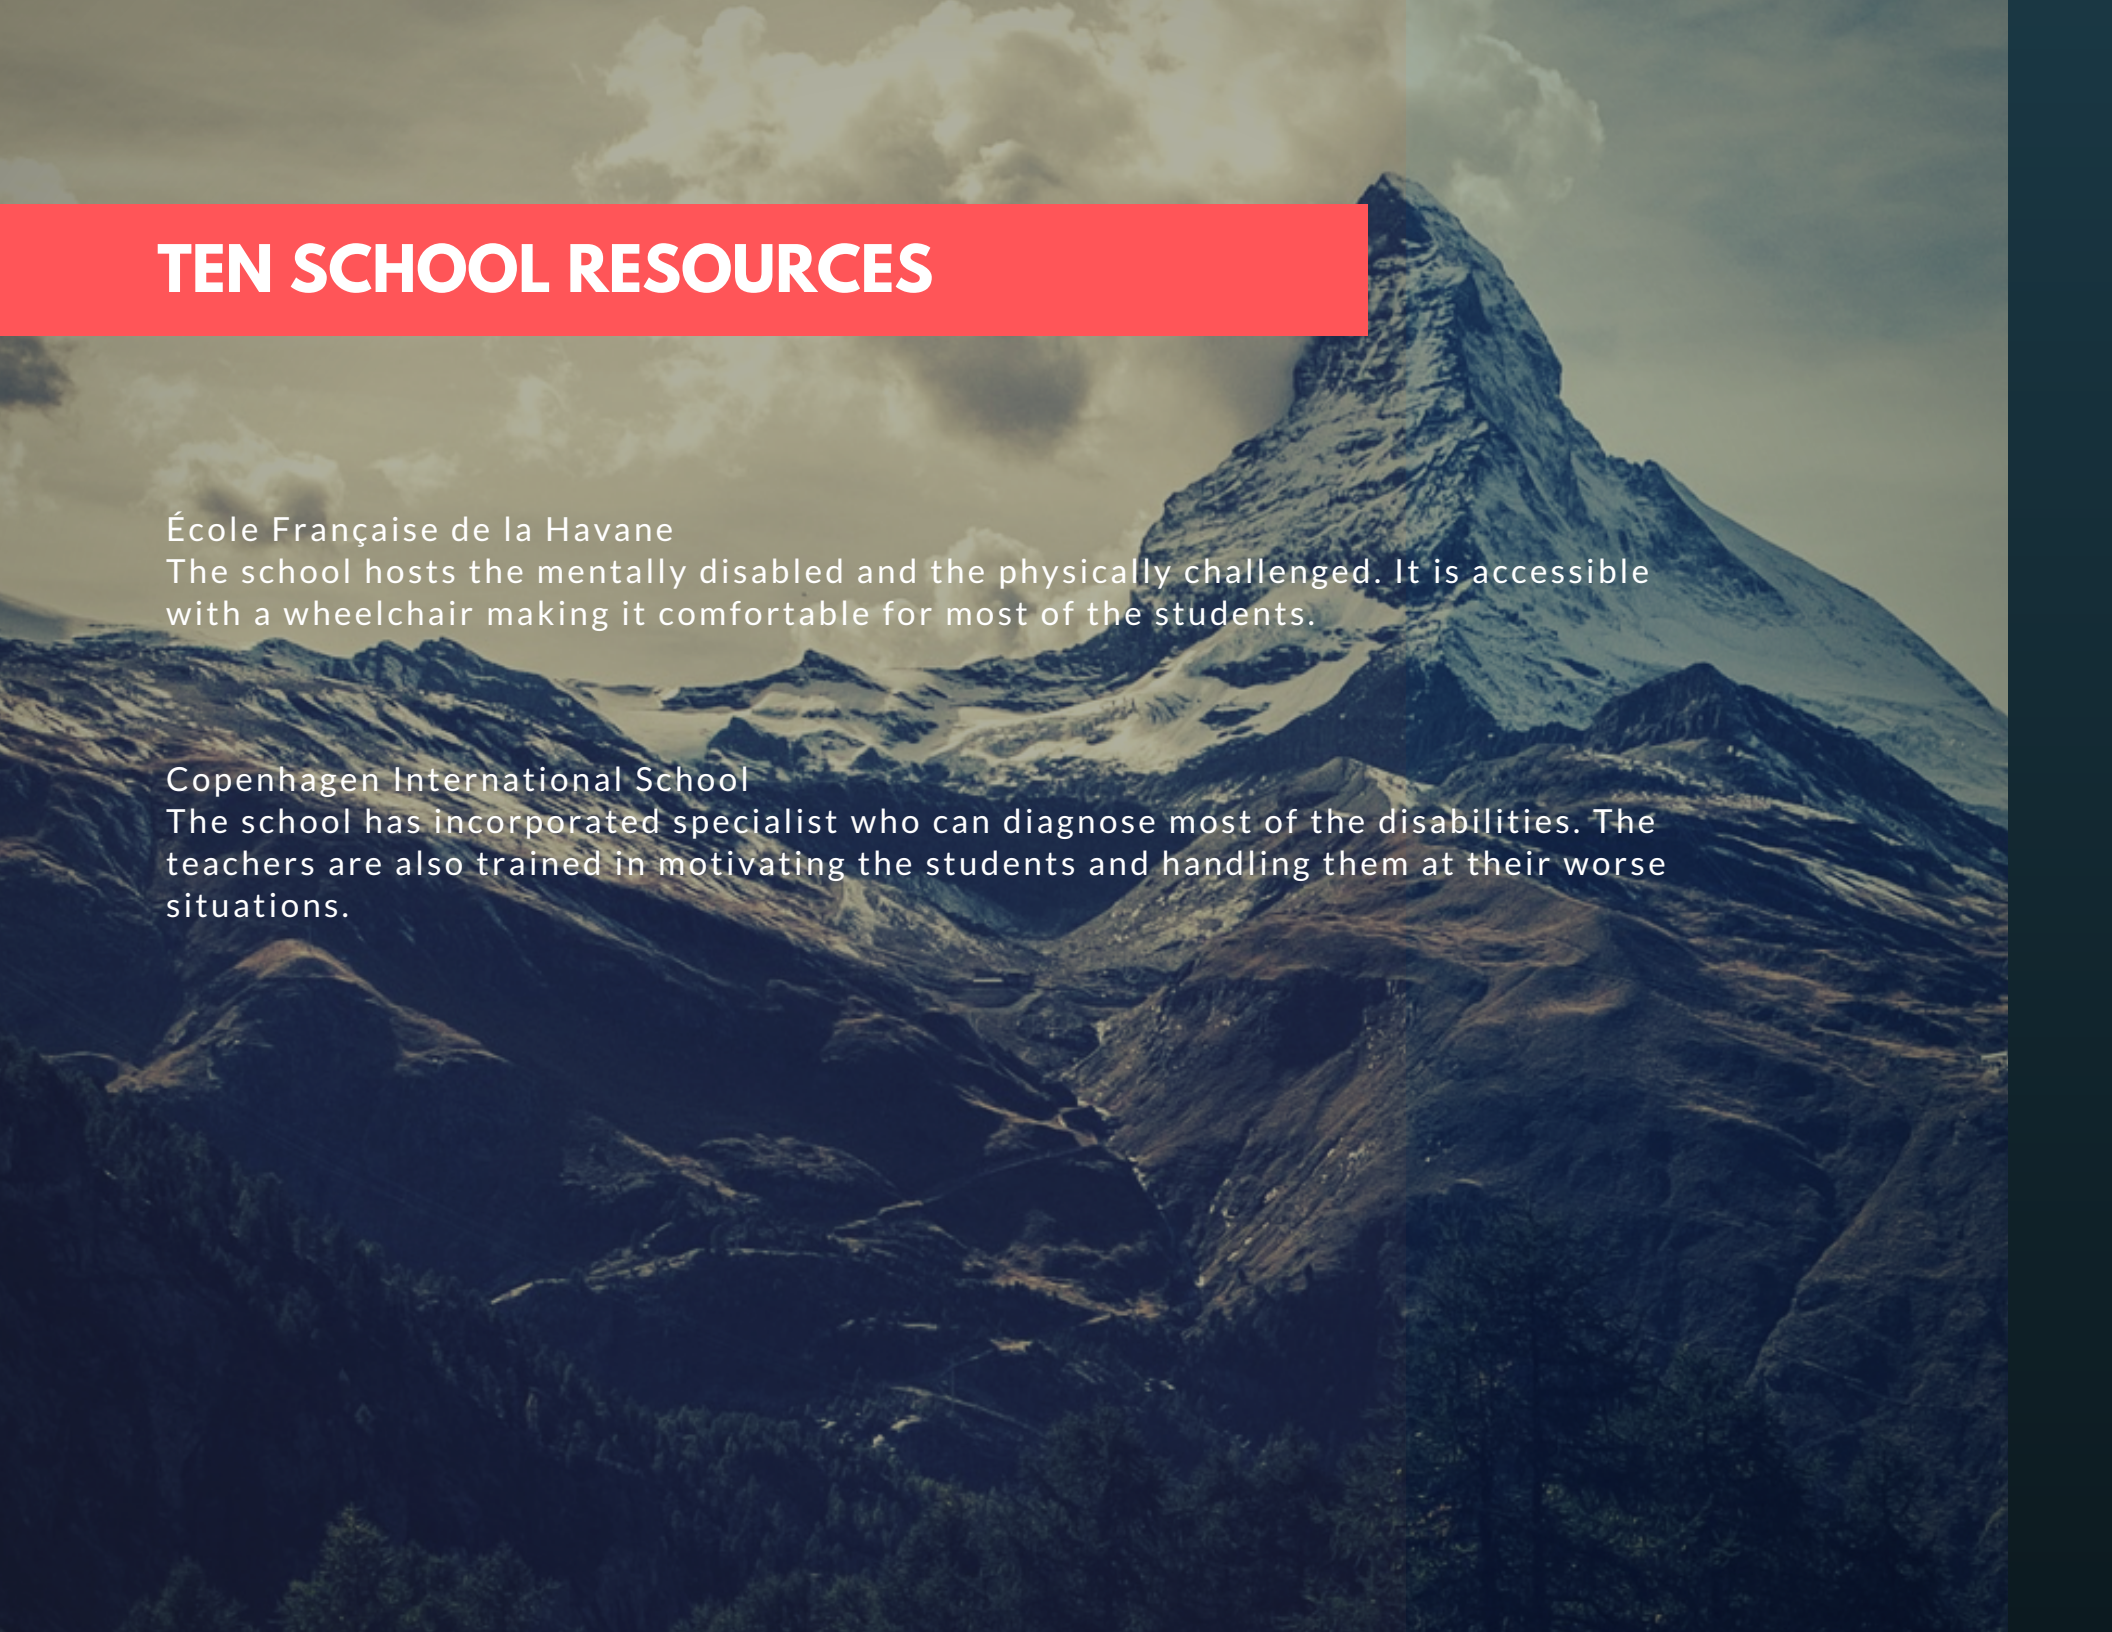

The school hosts moderate to mild disability. It is accessible to the physically handicapped. The school has no specificity on what they handle within the field of special needs.

Pan-American School

Dyslexia or ADHD to cerebral palsy and Down syndrome are some of the mild cases the school handles. They have a specialized curriculum which supports the students capabilities.

International School of Havana.

The school has embraced, low achievers and students with disorders within the locality by giving them a standard platform that focuses on personal development which eventually builds up a better version of themselves.

TEN SCHOOL RESOURCES

École Française de la Havane

The school hosts the mentally disabled and the physically challenged. It is accessible with a wheelchair making it comfortable for most of the students.

Copenhagen International School

The school has incorporated specialist who can diagnose most of the disabilities. The teachers are also trained in motivating the students and handling them at their worse situations.

A dramatic mountain landscape with a prominent peak under a cloudy sky. The foreground shows rugged, rocky terrain with some sparse vegetation. The sky is filled with large, white clouds, and the overall tone is somewhat muted and atmospheric.

NEEDS AND RESOURCES

Maryland Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs Resource Locator:
<http://specialneeds.dhmf.maryland.gov/>

In Maryland, only two thirds of families of the disabled children, have access to services relevant to the disabled. Half of those who lack the access need desperate help locating services for their minors. The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DHMH), fashioned a databank for children and young adults with exceptional needs, in order to improve access to information about needed services and resources. It is projected that the families in rural areas of the state, could possibly be not in a position to access any of these services.

The Arc <https://www.thearc.org/>

The Arc is a community-based organization that promotes and delivers facilities for those with special needs and their families. The union aids individuals of all ages with various disabilities. The ARC is the world's biggest organization concerned with cerebral and age-linked disabilities. The ARCs are situated in all states and are an outstanding special needs resource for the family with special needs, making it one of the most accessible special needs resource.