

Exploring Diversity in Canada
SOC1106 A

Conceptual Assignment

Due date: May 31st 11:00 PM

Must be submitted through Brightspace

Beware late penalties. No assignment will be accepted past 5 days without justification.

In this assignment, you have to pick a TV series episode, a movie, or a book that you are following, have watched or read and analyze it with what you have learned this term. The purpose of analysis is one that seeks to move beyond superficial description. You have to critically link what you have learned this term and use concepts explained in class, plus peer-reviewed sources (minimum of two), to support your analysis. This means you have to add a bibliography at the end of your assignment. The required book for the class and the articles do not count as a peer-reviewed reference, but it is recommended to use them.

You will be evaluated on the following:

Format and organization: 600 to 800 words, efficiently structured essay format.

Grammar: Based on your spelling and syntax.

References: Minimum 2 peer-reviewed references (excluding the book and articles from class) must be used in the analysis. APA style or similar acceptable style (ASA, Chicago).

Analysis: Clearly mention the work you will analyze. Make pertinent critical linkages between your topic and the course.

Français: N'oubliez pas que vous pouvez remettre ce travail en français. Toutefois, veuillez mentionner entre parenthèses les concepts utilisés du cours en anglais la première fois que vous l'employez.
