

SWK 635 Social Work in the Military Course Paper Rubric

APA & Writing Quality

Paper includes NO reference pages and does not follow guidelines and APA manual (6th ed.) for in-text and reference list citations. No spelling, punctuation, and/or grammatical errors are clear. (0)

Paper includes minimal reference pages and paper intermittently follows guidelines and APA manual (6th ed.) for in-text and reference list citations. Consistent spelling, punctuation, and/or grammatical errors are clear. (1-5)

Paper includes some reference pages and on a limited basis follows guidelines and APA manual (6th ed.) for in-text and reference list citations. Limited spelling, punctuation, and/or grammatical errors are clear. (5-7)

Paper includes reference pages and paper consistently and flawlessly follows guidelines and APA manual (6th ed.) for in-text and reference list citations. No spelling, punctuation, and/or grammatical errors are clear. (7-10)

Resources

The paper contains NO documented and VARIED resources (journal articles, texts, books, internet references) to support content. (0)

The paper contains at least 1-3 documented and VARIED resources (journal articles, texts, books, internet references) to support content. (1-5)

The paper contains at least 7-9 documented and VARIED resources (journal articles, texts, books, internet references) to support content. (6-9)

The paper contains at least 10 documented and VARIED resources (journal articles, texts, books, internet references) to support content. (10)

Saint Leo Core Values

The Saint Leo core values of community and respect are NOT integrated into the discussion of the influences of clinical and ethical decision making in treating the problem (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse) that the author selected to write about. (0)

The Saint Leo core values of community and respect are minimally integrated into the discussion of the influences of clinical and ethical decision making in treating the problem (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse) that the author selected to write about. (1-5)

The Saint Leo core values of community and respect are mostly integrated into the discussion of the influences of clinical and ethical decision making in treating the problem (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse) that the author selected to write about. (6-9)

SWK 635 Social Work in the Military Course Paper Rubric

The Saint Leo core value of community and respect are fully integrated into the discussion of the influences of clinical and ethical decision making in treating the problem (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse) that the author selected to write about. (10)

Communication of knowledge of content – Problem Description (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse)

None of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) the nature of the problem is well-developed; 2) statistics/facts are presented that illustrate the extent of the problem 3) the causes of the problem are presented clearly and logically with evidence drawn from readings and other resources 4) the people affected by the issue are thoroughly described. (0)

Some of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) the nature of the problem is well-developed; 2) statistics/facts are presented that illustrate the extent of the problem 3) the causes of the problem are presented clearly and logically with evidence drawn from readings and other resources 4) the people affected by the issue are thoroughly described. (1-14)

Most of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) the nature of the problem is well-developed; 2) statistics/facts are presented that illustrate the extent of the problem 3) the causes of the problem are presented clearly and logically with evidence drawn from readings and other resources 4) the people affected by the issue are thoroughly described. (15-24)

All to nearly all of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) the nature of the problem is well-developed; 2) statistics/facts are presented that illustrate the extent of the problem 3) the causes of the problem are presented clearly and logically with evidence drawn from readings and other resources 4) the people affected by the issue are thoroughly described. (25-35)

Communication of knowledge of content – Treatment of the problem (either PTSD, alcohol abuse, or child/spouse abuse)

None to none of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) Available treatment approached to treat the problem 2) Unique challenges/issues involved in treating the problem with military members and their families. 3) How effective treatment approaches have been in treating military members/families or similar populations. (0)

Some of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) Available treatment approached to treat the problem 2) Unique challenges/issues involved in treating the problem with military members and their families. 3) How effective treatment approaches have been in treating military members/families or similar populations. (1-14)

Most of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) Available treatment approached to treat the problem 2) Unique challenges/issues involved in treating the problem with military members and their families. 3) How effective treatment approaches have been in treating military members/families or similar populations. (15-24)

SWK 635 Social Work in the Military Course Paper Rubric

All to nearly all of the following elements are demonstrated in an exemplary way: 1) Available treatment approached to treat the problem 2) Unique challenges/issues involved in treating the problem with military members and their families. 3) How effective treatment approaches have been in treating military members/families or similar populations. (24-35)