

Short Answers

1. Why is there not a clear standard for Freedom of Speech application to all types of speech by the U.S. Supreme Court? Briefly mention two approaches to interpreting this civil liberty.
2. Why is the Court more willing to allow regulation of broadcast media than of print media? How has the Court tended to approach media on the internet?
3. What is a chilling effect? Why does the Court want to avoid such an effect?
4. What is the standard for proving libel? How is this standard different for private vs. public citizens?
5. How was the Second Amendment incorporated? Describe this in the context of two key cases that shifted the Second Amendment to interpreting it as an individual right rather than a collective right.