

The social problem you intend to address in your final oral report and why you have chosen it (150 words).

The social problem I chose Human Rights and Racial Discrimination as social problem I intend to address in my final oral report.

The concept/theory that will inform the social problem you are reporting upon. Refer to readings on theory, lecture, and models of social change covered this week in online lectures and textbook chapters (100 words).

The method (include description of sample) you will use to collect data informed by theory to develop a solution (assessment, prevention, intervention, etc. to the social problem you are researching (50 words).

A preliminary solution, that is, an application of theory to a social problem to bring about positive social change (150 words).